'Tea-Party' coffee table,
by Alessandro La Spada, for Visionnaire

BEST STRIPES

It's all here in black and white

Op art seems to be the disorder of the day, with Alessandro La Spada's wood-and-marble coffee table for Visionnaire and Eley Kishimoto's monochrome 'Zig Zag Birds' wallcovering for Kirkby Design.

The 'Ziqqurat' cabinet proves that Driade is on dazzling form, sporting an unusually striking pattern for a big Italian brand. Clashing nicely are Eric Willemart's Memphis-inspired pendant lights for Casalto, which can be assembled in different iterations. Lee Broom's vases for Wedgwood continue the zebra theme, with Laurence Brabant Editions' tableware giving the look a final twist. ✨
